- (c) married daughters whose husbands are alive;
- (d) married daughters of a deceased son whose husbands are alive;

if there is any member of the family other than those specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d)':

Provided further that the widow or widows, and the child or children of a deceased son shall receive between them in equal parts only the share which that son would have received if he had survived the employee and had not attained the age of majority at the time of his death.

- (3) In any case to which the provisions of sub-paragraphs (I) and (2) do not apply the whole amount shall be payable to the person legally entitled to it.
- (4) If a person who is eligible to receive assurance Scheme benefit of the deceased member in terms of sub-paragraph (I), (2) or (3) is charged with the offence of murdering the member or for abetting in the commission of such an offence, his claim to receive assurance benefit shall remain suspended till the conclusion of the criminal proceedings instituted against him. If on the conclusion of the criminal proceedings, the person concerned is —
- (a) convicted for the murder or abetting the murder of the member, he shall be debarred from receiving his share of deposit linked assurance benefit which shall be payable to other eligible members of any of the family; or
- (b) acquitted of the charge of murdering or abetting in the murder of the member, his share shall be payable to him.

Explanation. - For the purpose of this paragraph an employee's posthumous child, if born alive, shall be treated in the same way as a surviving child born before his death.

- 24. Assurance amount how to be paid. (I) The nominee or nominees or other claimants shall send a written application to the Commissioner through the employer in such form as the Commissioner may specify, to claim payment under this Scheme.
